

CITY OF ARANSAS PASS
JOB DESCRIPTION
SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER

PAY GROUP: Patrol DEPARTMENT: Police REPORTS TO: Patrol Captain PAY: $19.25 – $23.25/HR

SUMMARY: Primary responsibility of the School Resource Officer (SRO) will be to patrol all Aransas Pass ISD campuses, working with school staff to provide a safe environment for the children and staff in accordance with department policy and the most current MOU between APISD and the City. The SRO must put on and direct school related educational and training programs. Secondary responsibility, when needed, will be to provide police patrols within the tri-county city limits of Aransas Pass, TX. In both positions, the officer shall be well versed in and capable of enforcing federal, state, and city laws.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS: In addition to the essential functions of an Aransas Pass Police Officer, the SRO is responsible for working shift work, during holidays, and sometimes under hazardous conditions. The SRO will patrol both on foot and inside a marked emergency vehicle, enforcing traffic laws, state, federal and local criminal/ordinance laws. The SRO will have an office within APISD and shall limit his/her presence at the PD during SRO working hours. The SRO will interact in a professional and courteous manner by leveraging a modified customer service approach to policing. The SRO will be proactive and thorough in his or her performance of police duties, always striving for a solution and/or positive conclusion in all situations involved.

This description is an abbreviated example of the job listed and should not be considered as an all-inclusive description of what the job will entail. Duties change and new tasks may be added from time to time.

QUALIFICATION FACTORS: The police officer applicant shall be fully licensed by T.C.O.L.E. and in good standing. Candidates shall meet the following minimum standards established by T.C.O.L.E. (37 Tex. Admin. Code § 217.1):

- Citizen of the United States;
- Must be 21 years of age or older;
- Have received from an accredited school at least one of the following:
 - A valid high school diploma or GED,
 - An associate degree, or
 - Bachelor degree, master's degree, or Ph.D.;
- Fingerprinted for local, state and national records
- Not have received a conviction, pre-trial diversion, deferred adjudication, community supervision or probation for any of the following:
 - Any offense above a Class B misdemeanor,
 - A Class B misdemeanor if the date of the court order granting community supervision or probation is within the last 10 years,
 - An offense involving family violence, as defined under Chapter 71, Texas Family Code;
- Not be currently charged with any criminal offense for which a conviction would be a bar to licensure;
- Not prohibited by state or federal law from operating a motor vehicle, or possessing firearms or ammunition;
- Submit to a City approved medical examination prior to appointment to ensure the candidate is physically sound and free from any defect which may adversely affect the performance of a peace officer's duties and that the candidate shows no trace of drug dependency or illegal drug use;
- Hold a valid class C Texas driver's license with good standing traffic history;
- Must be of good moral character with stable employment record and no history of conduct that may affect suitability for law enforcement employment;
- Be in good mental health as required by T.C.O.L.E. (psychological pre-screening required);
- Must have a good working knowledge of computer operations, Microsoft Office software, and technology in general;
- Must be able to independently make and carry out decisions under high stress situations and without supervision, both while maintaining one's composure when handling emotionally charged events;
- Must be able to multitask and capable of going from one task to the other both expeditiously and efficiently;
- Have excellent communications skills, be personable, and have a good sense of humor;
- Free from any prohibitive criminal history activity as defined within the T.C.O.L.E. rules for licensing;
- If prior military, hold no less than an honorable discharge;
- Hold no less than a general discharge from T.C.O.L.E. for all previous peace officer employment;
- Be free from any T.C.O.L.E. mandated license suspensions or revocations.

MINIMUM EXPERIENCE AND/OR CERTIFICATION: Criminal justice or police experience is required. Preference may be given to those possessing two or more years of quality policing experience.
